Course Description:

This NEW twenty-four hour course is for school resource officers, campus monitors, principals, assistant principals, teachers and/or anyone interested in providing a safe and secure learning environment. The new curriculum has been developed as a result of training requests and surveys done to help identify areas that need further exploration. Additionally, the course will help motivate and rejuvenate both attendees and school-based policing programs. Everyone will have an opportunity to share their challenges and successes and brainstorm workable solutions with their peers.

Core Topics Include:

- Development of Successful Programs on Your Campus
- Refinement of the Partnership that is the SRO Program
- Preparing your teachers, staff and administration to evaluate their buildings and the campus for safety and response
- Refinement of crisis response strategies for Law Enforcement, School Administration and Staff

About Your Instructor:

Dr. James Corbin is the lead instructor for this course. He is a retired Orlando, Florida police officer, with fifteen years of experience as a school resource officer. He is recognized nationally as an expert in the areas of school violence, school security and school safety. Jim has served as a consultant in the development of SRO programs and school safety initiatives nationally and holds a Ph.D. in Education Administration and Supervision. Jim has also authored several training manuals that are currently being used to educate law enforcement professionals and educators nationally. Class attendees will receive continued support, guidance and mentoring from Corbin & Associates, Inc. We believe that by providing this additional support we are “Building Relationships That Last A Lifetime”.
