Course Description:

This NEW twenty-four-hour course is for school resource officers, campus monitors, school administrators, teachers and/or anyone interested in providing a safe and secure learning environment for their students. This new curriculum has been developed as a result of training requests and surveys to help identify areas that needed further exploration. Additionally, the course will help motivate and rejuvenate both attendees and their school-based policing programs. Everyone will have an opportunity to share their challenges and successes and brainstorm workable solutions with their peers.

Core Topics Include:

- Societal Changes that Impact the School Resource Officer
- Becoming an Advocate not an Adversary to Students
- Program and Self Evaluation
- Expansion of the Partnership that is the SRO Program
- Crisis Management and Investigation

About Your Instructor:

Dr. James Corbin is the lead instructor for this course. He is a retired from the Orlando Police Department, with fifteen years of experience as a school resource officer. He is recognized nationally as an expert in the areas of school violence, school security and school safety. Jim has served as a consultant in the development of SRO programs and school safety initiatives nationally and holds a Ph.D. in Education Administration and Supervision. Jim has also authored several training manuals that are currently being used to educate law enforcement professionals and educators nationally. Class attendees will receive continued support, guidance and mentoring from Corbin & Associates, Inc. We believe that by providing this additional support we are “Building Relationships That Last A Lifetime”.
