Course Description:

This forty-hour course has been developed with information gathered over thirty years of experience in School-Based Policing. The curriculum is continually being updated to ensure that attendees receive professional and quality instruction. The concept of school resource officer is best described as a triad concept: teacher, counselor, and law enforcement officer. This course will concentrate on this triad and teach skills necessary to be successful on any campus. Attendees will be taught specific techniques to ensure success as well as some traps to avoid in the performance of their duties. Completion of this course has proven to be invaluable to existing school-based law enforcement officers and programs. There will be a course examination and at least one graded practical exercise performed by each student.

Who Should Attend?

Any School-Based Law Enforcement Officer, DARE Officer, School Liaison Officer, School Resource Officer, School Peace Officer, Campus Supervisor, Dean of Students, School Administrator, Law Enforcement Supervisor, Program Manager, Teacher, Parent, or anyone interested in the creation of safe schools.

Core Topics:

The History of School Based Policing, School Violence, Counseling and Interview Techniques, Involvement in Student Activities, Classroom Strategies for Officers, Adolescent Stress and Suicide, Intervention Strategies to Deal with Gangs, Crisis Planning and Management, and Legal Aspects of School Based Policing Programs.

About Your Instructor:

Capt. Shaun Shepherd has been with the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office in Chattanooga, Tennessee for more than 29 years. He currently serves as the Youth & Community Commander, which includes administrating the SRO Division, Homeland Security and Community Awareness. He served six years as the SRO at Chattanooga Central High School, and worked for four years as a team supervisor within the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office's Patrol Division before this assignment. Shaun has been a part of Corbin & Associates, Inc. for over 16 years teaching Basic and Advanced classes as well as the Supervision and Management of School Based-Policing Programs. Shaun has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. All attendees will continue to receive support, guidance, and mentoring from Corbin & Associates, Inc. after completion of the class. We believe that by providing this additional support we are “Building Relationships That Last a Lifetime”.

Date, Location, & Cost:

Class will be held July 12-16, 2021. Location will be at the Corona Police Department Training Center, 730 Corporation Yard Way, Corona, CA 92880. Cost of this class is $385, which includes all materials, flash drive, and certificate of completion. If possible, attendees should have computer access for an out-of-class assignment.
